Redeclaration - Bd.R. 203(c)

- 2 The count should have included "and" between "1. binds the intercellular function of the FAS receptor.” This error was called to my attention during the phone conference held May 2, 2007, but was not corrected.

This interference is redeclared as follows with the changes shown in bold:

2. modulates or mediates the cellular function of the FAS receptor.

Michigan: 61-78

The claims of the parties that correspond to Count 1 are:
